

JEANNE DUGAS OF ACADIA: A NOVEL

In many ways, the story of Jeanne Dugas and her family is the story of the Acadians. Born of Acadian parents at Louisbourg, Jeanne Dugas (1731-1817) and her husband Pierre Bois were among the founding families of the Acadian village of Cheticamp in 1785. Descended from one of the three most prominent families in Acadia, Jeanne Dugas and...

Reader's Opinions

I had been traveling in Nova Scotia recently. And learned about the Acadians who were deported by the British as they fought with the French for control of Nova Scotia. The juvenile historical fiction book follows Jeanne through...

I had always thought that I had a good grasp of the history of the 18th Century deportation of the Acadians from Nova Scotia, but I found that the story came to life like never before in the pages of Jeanne Dugas of Acadia. Riveting...
