Peek Inside the Book

I began life with a quenching of the light of day, and, from the first moment that I realized myself, realized also that I was on the wane. Ivan Goncharov, Oblomov // these fond parents were not blind to the value of education it was that they realized only its external value. That is to say, they could not look beyond the fact that education enabled...

Reader's Opinions

There is so much more to Oblomov than what one expects. A farce on laziness, a parable on the decline of the aristocracy of landowners at the dawn of the great social reforms...
