Peek Inside the Book

I categorically declare first my absolute innocence, second my lack of criminal intent, and third my effusive apologies. Jack Vance, Cugel the Clever: (previously titled The Eyes of the Overworld) //

Reader's Opinions

The Eyes of the Overworld is a great book, but I'm going to take a contrarian stance and say that I actually preferred The Dying Earth. Yes, I can admit that I wasn't totally smitten by the amoral, not-so-clever misadventures of Cugel the Clever after he crosses Iucounu the Laughing Magician. Yes, this book contained all the same sly,...

8.5/10'The Eyes of the Overworld' is a quite different book than the previous one, and definitely the best one of the series, as it features Cugel: one the most important personalities of Jack Vance's career.This book shows that, not only great Vance's ideas, but also the protagonist's "cleverness". A character so well build that...
