Reader's Opinions

Had I to read this compendium of three Oz books again, would I do it? Between a naive pearls-wielding prince from the islands-outside-of-Oz to the cool story of the time Ozma gets Ozducted to the creepy scenes where the Tin Woodman's dismembered body parts...

Rinkitink in Oz was probably my favorite story since the original "Wizard of Oz" from Baum, and I can't really say why. It's not radically different than the other installments, I just seemed to enjoy it so much more! The Lost Princess of Oz was also a fun time, as all the stories are, really. The Tin Woodman of Oz was actually quite...
