

SUPERNATURAL CHRONICLES: THE VAMPIRES

After having just survived near annihilation, eighteen-year-old Julia and her vampire friends have reveled in the afterglow, and are now bored. Thankful their enemy is sleeping off the defeat quietly in Julia's vaults for all eternity, they need a new challenge. When a letter from the supposed Noir begs for their help with a riddle, it becomes...

Reader's Opinions

I liked the book. It was a little frustrating at times though. It took too long to get to the point. I thought a lot of it could have been left out.

Like all the previous stories in this series, this one was excellent. Fast paced and leaves the reader wondering what will happen next. Love, friendship, giggles, and suspense all combine to make this a story worth reading. A great addition to this great series.
